The Pastor's Pen

He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"...

[Peter] said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep." -John 21.17

One of the things we do with such extraordinary commitment and involvement is feeding others in our midst. I am deeply proud of the Youth for beginning a new project here. With the leadership provided by Annie & Carey Parker and Cate & Thomas Tuck, our Youth will soon be stocking and maintaining a Blessing Box for the good of some of our neighbors in need. In a little bit of time to come, they will speak to you about ways you can be a part of their ministry. This box is being designed and constructed by Tim Wasik, for whom we are most grateful.

Across this season of Lent, we are again engaged in one of the most powerful ministries I believe we do for the community and the connectional church of which we are a part. Salem

Presbytery's "Pennies for Hunger" program is near to the heart of many of us, and I am glad to be a part of a congregation who heeds the call to feed Jesus's sheep, wherever they are.

As we have done for the past two Lenten seasons together, this marks the third year of our Lenten Challenge, where you are encouraged to contribute your spare change and loose dollars to care for our siblings near and far. As a part of this challenge, Jim Tarman has solicited and received promises for $1500.00 as a matching grant from certain church members provided the rest of us can reach $1500 together. That approximates to $215 each week for the whole congregation, or $1.65 each week for the average parishioner attending worship... I know we can do this and am sure we can do even more!

And finally, the Missions Committee has brought back something several of you will remember with fondness—our March Madness Canned Food Drive. As you read in last month's newsletter and will again in this edition, this is a fun way of showing and sharing support for your team (or perhaps not your team but a school with which you might be affiliated or even support just to bring a fun loss to another... like canning for Duke just to poke fun at UNC). Either way, our friends at ICM are going to benefit from our fun, and these ways of contributing go into heeding Jesus's command to Peter and us to feed Christ's sheep, which all of us are.

During this season, we all walk this journey individually toward the redemption Christ promises us. But together, I'm asking for our collective resources into these shared goals. We will follow Jesus's command to feed his sheep; in so doing, we will truly experience the ministry of presence.

May God bless this special mission endeavor.
God loves you, and so do I,

Our Congregational Leadership

Flower Guild Information

Like everything else, the cost of a fresh flower arrangement has increased in the last few years. You have likely noticed there have been more and more Sundays when we have used our artificial arrangements at our Sunday worship services. One way we anticipate cutting down on the cost of these flowers is to be better stewards with the gifts of those who give them; we will have fresh arrangements during each of our Sunday services when communion will take place along with "high-church" Sundays.

If you would like to place flowers in memory or in honor of someone special during any other weekend of the year, please call Jane Lentz at 704.880.6900 or email her at janeplentz@gmail.com. Thank you to everyone who gives arrangements to the glory of God!

Notes of Thank You

Dear Family & Friends,

My heart is full.... It is full of gratitude, appreciation, and love for First Presbyterian Church and the people who make it the remarkable place that it is.

In the past month I have been the recipient of a seemingly endless outpouring of love from my church family. I can't name them all, but Nate and Shelley, Jim and Carole, Costi and Teresa, Jonna and Dick, and others have been so kind to me. They have brought food, sent cards, called, offered transportation, and just generally been a godsend to me. I can never repay them or thank them enough for what they have done. Jonna and BJ came by just now and brought a basket of food. We talked about church and, like others I have talked to recently, they couldn't contain their joy and enthusiasm for what is happening now at church. I believe that God's hand is moving in this congregation at this moment. You'd have to be blind not to see it, I think.

When I get back I want to thank each person face to face for the love they have shown. These people are living out Christ's commands in a wonderful way. I am privileged and honored to be a member of this body.

God bless all of you. I love you all very much.

Missions Update

The March Madness Canned Food Drive for Iredell Christian Ministries has started and will continue until Sunday, 24 March 2024. There are boxes for UNC, Duke, Wake Forest, NC State, Clemson, and a non-Acc box (for all you AppStater, Arizona State, or other fans) located in the hallway of the church from the breezeway. The team that collects the most weight in non-perishable food items will win!

Clinkers Update

Many thanks to Lourdes Winters for facilitating February's Clinkers gathering at Cozumel, where a large crowd of Clinkers enjoyed food and fellowship. The feedback from this group for hosting/co-hosting opportunities was tremendous allowing us to plan for several more gatherings in 2024.

However, because we did not have anyone sign up to host in March, we will not be meeting in March.

We are looking forward to our April gathering on the 18th of April where we will gather at the Manse. Jeremy will be hosting along with Dick & Jonna Sears, Jan Ambrose, Richard Hanson, Suzie & Donnie Haynes, Susan Hollingsworth and Cathy Lasater.

OWLS

The OWLS will hold their next luncheon on Tuesday, 5 March 2024 at 12:30pm in the Fourth Creek Meeting Hall. RSVP to Martha Rothwell at 704.450.7169 or Sarah Davis at 704.902.1937.

PW Circle 3

Circle 3 will meet Tuesday, 19 March at 6:30pm at the home of Anne Herschler. Every women of any age is welcome to join us each month!

Lost & Found

The Church Office has a few items in its "Lost & Found." If you locate something around the church without its owner, please drop them to the office where we can hold them until the item(s) is/are reunited with their owner. Thank you.

Church Cleanup Day

The Property Committee invites you to a church-wide cleanup event for Saturday, 16 March beginning at 8:30am. Put on your Saturday work clothes and bring any yard tools or electric/appliance tools you can [along with your gloves] as we anticipate taking care of some of our outdoor grounds and interior rooms. Every person is able to attend this great day for work and fellowship, and the more members we have the easier and shorter our work. We will order some pizza (or other food) for the afternoon, as we take time to break bread with each other after having worked up great appetites.

Historic Cemeteries

The Historic Cemetery Committee will host Wonderful Wednesday meals every third Wednesday through May. The meal is titled "Tacos for Tombstones" as a fundraiser. The goal is to help cover expenses for the work he and his committee do on the Fourth Creek Cemetery. We will be experimenting with a new method of paying, either cash or debit/credit card. The new price will be $8.00 for adults, $5.00 for children.

The committee will also host a cleanup event at the Allison Cemetery (724 Bryant St, 28677) on Saturday, 16 March at 12:34pm. We welcome everyone to attend this special day of service for the saints who have come before us.

Easter Lily Form

Please print names as you would like them acknowledged in the Order for Worship on Resurrection Sunday. Donations of any amount are accepted for your memorial or honorarium, with proceeds beyond cost to go to a beneficiary to be determined by the Flower Guild. This form must be turned into the church office by Sunday, 24 March 2024.

Preschool Sunday

Thank you to the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Statesville for the welcoming opportunity to worship with some of our preschool families on Preschool Sunday.

Bentley's Bears

We are so grateful to the community, preschool families, and congregation of FPC Statesville for the outpouring support shown for our Bentley's Bears project! 693 bears were collected and are currently being distributed to children who are in need within our community. Thank you again for your support in helping us to honor the memory of our preschool friend, Bentley Marlowe.
